EXECUTIVE AUTHORITY STATEMENT

The Annual Performance Plan (APP) of the National Youth Development Agency (NYDA) was developed with the support of the Department of Women, Youth and Persons with Disabilities (DWYPD). It identifies the performance indicators and targets which the agency seeks to achieve during the period - 2023/24 financial year. It is important that these performance indicators and targets are aligned to the national priorities, given that the NYDA is a national public entity established for socio-economic empowerment of young people.

This 2023/24 APP gives expression to continuously accelerate service delivery improvement. The aim is to reach out to too many young people, particularly marginalised groups like girls and young women, youth with disabilities, and youth residing in deep rural areas and townships. It is on that basis that, the NYDA linked its programmes to the Medium-Term Strategic Framework (MTSF) outcomes

- decent employment through inclusive economic growth and nation building and social cohesion.
- The Economic Development, Skills Development and Education Programmes are aligned with employment and job creation,
- whilst the National Youth Service Programme is aligned to Skills Development as well as Nation building and social cohesion.

Furthermore, the DWYPD is supporting the NYDA's agenda of good corporate governance, hence the department is amending the NYDA Act, Act No.54 of 2008. The finalisation of this legislation will enhance its governance and make its mandate to be more focused on intensifying service delivery. This is crucial, in the context of sluggish economic growth, resources constraints, and poor outlook. Therefore, the NYDA needs to forge meaningful partnerships with government, civil society organisations, business organisations, and development partners, in the quest to achieve common objectives. The NYDA has rationalized its work and will, through its Annual Performance Plan for 2023/24, have a renewed focus towards youth entrepreneurship and the creation and facilitation of jobs as well as the coordination of the National Youth Services Programme across all sectors of government and society.

I am confident that the NYDA will continue to support young people across the country and make a meaningful contribution towards growing their businesses.

FOREWORD BY THE CHAIRPERSON OF THE BOARD

The NYDA will, over the medium term, implement youth development programmes to address the MTFS outcomes related to an efficient, effective and development-orientated public service in support of the young people of South Africa. This is guided by the vision of building “a credible, capable, inclusive and activist development agency that is responsive to the plight of South Africa's youth”. The National Youth Policy 2030 is the guiding legislative policy for youth development while the work of the Agency continues to be defined by the National Youth Development Agency Act 54 of 2008. The NYDA has rationalized its work and will, through its Annual Performance Plan for 2023/24, have a renewed focus towards youth entrepreneurship and the creation and facilitation of jobs as well as the coordination of the National Youth Services Programme across all sectors of government and society. The Agency understands that ultimately its judgement lies in the impact it makes in the lives of young people. To this end, its Annual Performance Plan has been enhanced to ensure maximum impact while redirecting functions which are better placed elsewhere in government.

The NYDA was established primarily to address challenges faced by the nation's youth. This is guided by the vision of building “a credible, capable, inclusive and activist development agency that is responsive to the plight of South Africa's youth”.

The 4th Board of Directors were appointed by H.E. President Cyril Ramaphosa in November 2021 and assumed its duties in December 2021. What became evident was the myriad of challenges facing the South African population: the worst persistent cuts to the National Budget in the history of this country as we continue operating under the fiscal framework of fiscal consolidation. Developmental work, thus, becomes more challenging in a declining budgetary environment. Challenges in other elements of Government translate into challenges for the NYDA. South Africa continues to face multiple overlapping issues: the economic fallout associated with COVID-19, persistent electricity outages, high inflation, food insecurity, high oil prices and growing inequality. And the unfortunate reality is that young people disproportionately bear the brunt of the abovementioned challenges.

It is for the above-stated reality why youth development should align to approaches that seek to address poverty, skills shortage, unemployment and serve as a mechanism for the promotion of socio-economic development, through integrated and sectoral programmes that seek to bring about tangible improvements in the quality of their lives.

Socio-cultural factors such as, cultural trends, demographics and population dynamics affect the community within which the NYDA operates. It is important therefore to develop a multi-level strategy that seeks to build a New Social Compact with the aim of getting all business and social partners to be involved in the overarching goal of getting the youth to enter the economic activity space. This enables the Agency's environment to improve efficiently in the provision of programmes, products and services that provide real time data for measurable impact.

In setting its strategy for the 2023/2024 Financial Year, the Agency will focus its efforts on expanding its annual support for youth-owned enterprises as our five wave evaluation has indicated that youth entrepreneurship programmes are working. In areas of skills development, the Agency will look into growing its partnerships with SETA's, focussing on high impact, pay-for-performance skills development. The National Youth Service is an example of a quality programme that has been taken to scale. Ideally, the Agency will explore ways to see this programme institutionalized in the Government budgeting process, to be able to maintain our baseline in 2023/2024 and double to 100 000 participants by 2025, as well as to improve the transition rate of participants from 20% to 50% by 2025. The programme should be effectively communicated, telling the story of service in the country, building young people's agency and encouraging them to be active citizens of their democracy. The Agency will adopt a more sectoral approach to job placements, which will include working closer with business, civil society and industry at regional level and focussing on the recruitment needs of business and the preparation of young people for these roles. In the area of the research, policy and development the NYDA will strive to continue to release annual Status of the Youth report; track the Integrated Youth Development report as well as evaluations on services that build on the body of youth development work and reaffirms the knowledge base. Lastly, in the area of International Relations, the NYDA looks forward to South Africa assuming the Chair of BRICS in 2023 and will position itself as a strong youth development agency, not just on the Continent, but also globally when South Africa hosts the BRICS forum.

By paying close attention to where young people are directing their efforts, and what barriers they encounter, the Agency will continue to see how to meet them where they are. Thus, the Annual Performance Plan reaffirms the commitment of the Agency to resolving the plight of youth underdevelopment to be able to maximise its efforts to ensuring there is a positive impact on the lives of young people in this country.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER STATEMENT

The NYDA is a South African-based agency established primarily to address challenges faced by the nation's youth. The Agency was established by an Act of Parliament (Act 54 of 2008). The institution was established to be a single, unitary structure addressing youth development issues at National, Provincial and Local Government level. The Agency should be seen within the broad context of South Africa's development dynamics. The Agency derives its mandate from the legislative frameworks, including the National Youth Development Agency Act, 2008 (Act 54 of 2008) (NYDA Act), the National Development Plan 2030, the National Youth Policy 2030 and the Integrated Youth Development Strategy (IYDS). The Agency assumed and improved the operational platform developed by the merger of the National Youth Commission and the Umsobomvu Youth Fund, which rendered the Agency operational with immediate effect. In addition, the staff component of its predecessors was also incorporated into the NYDA. The strategy of the NYDA can be summarised as follows:

The NYDA Act no 54 of 2008 further mandates the NYDA to develop an Integrated Youth Development Strategy (IYDS) for South Africa and initiate, design, coordinate, evaluate and monitor all programmes that aim to integrate the youth into the economy and society in general. These initiated programmes aim to alleviate poverty, urban and rural development, combating of crime and substance abuse as well as social decay amongst youth. The NYDA lobbied other organs of state to consider national priorities in respect of youth development when planning their activities regarding their implementation of youth development priorities. The NYDA will continue to monitor and evaluate youth development interventions across the board and mobilize youth for active participation in civil society engagements.

The IYDS has been designed as a strategy that any role-player could get involved in at any point in time. The primary role within this strategy is for the NYDA to act as a catalyst.

The NYDA with the support of the Office of the Presidency, can create the political will and momentum within Government, to allow the Integrated Youth Development Strategy to gain the traction that is required for successful implementation. The opportunity to influence what other Departments are doing in the youth development space, must be driven quite strongly by both the NYDA and the Presidency.

The main aim is to make youth development part and parcel of what other line departments are delivering, to the point where organizational and individual performance agreements include youth development as a clear area of focus. The role is, therefore, to remove barriers to success and to assist with the development and delivery of critical success factors. Our role can broadly be described as to:

- Provide planning and decision-making information for projects.
- Coordinate key engagements.
- Facilitate critical discussions and to ease projects through conceptualization into design and ultimately implementation.
- Establish key partnerships with private sector organizations at national, provincial, and local levels.
- Monitoring, evaluation and reporting requirements of the liaison function.

The National Youth Development Agency linked its programmes to the Medium-Term Strategic Framework outcomes of decent employment through inclusive economic growth, as well as nation building and social cohesion. The Economic Development and Jobs Program are aligned towards employment creation while the National Youth Service programme has both a skills development as well as nation building alignment.

The National Development Plan (NDP) 2030 states that: "Having a relatively young population can be advantageous, provided most working-age individuals are employed. The challenge is to convert this into a demographic dividend. This will only be possible if the number of working-age individuals can be employed in productive activities. The National Development Plan 2030 also sets targets to intervene in the number of youth that are Not in Employment,

Education, and Training (NEET) by setting targets for increased enrolments in Further Education and Training (FET), Higher Education Institutions and provide second chance opportunities for young people to complete Grade 12.

Presidential Youth Employment Intervention

What the Presidential Youth Employment Intervention plans to achieve

The PYEI is contributing to the President's stated goal of creating 2 million new jobs for young people in this decade. It is pursuing results in the following outcome areas over the medium term:

- ▶ New demand is generated, and opportunities are aggregated and made visible for young people.
- ▶ An increasing number of young people are employed in the formal and informal economy, including through youth entrepreneurship.
- ▶ An increasing number of young people access opportunities for workplace experience, service and training. Young people seamlessly transition and navigate different pathways (within and beyond the PYEI, and across learning and work areas).
- ▶ An increasing number of enterprises are owned and managed by young people.
- ▶ An improved system (across government/non-government/private sector) enables opportunities for young people.

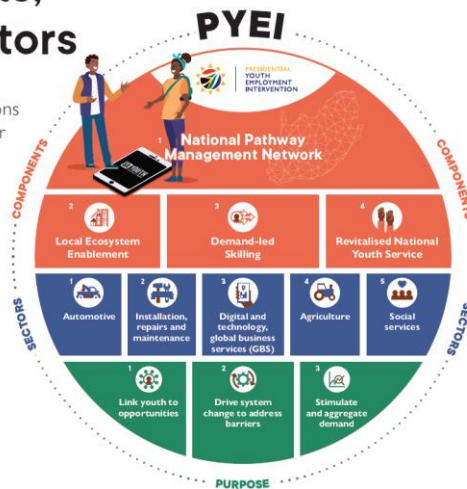

The PMO in the Presidency continuously monitors progress with implementation. Quarterly updates are published on the PYEI dashboard available here: www.stateofnation.gov.za

One national network, four components, five priority sectors

The PYEI is implementing priority actions to link young people to opportunities for learning, workplace experience and earning a sustainable living.

It also implements interventions to address barriers young people faces and supports the creation of opportunities in the formal and informal economies. These actions are focused on sectors with identified potential for sustained growth that can translate into employment opportunities for young people. These sectors are digital and technology, global business services, agriculture, installation repairs and maintenance, social services, and automotive.

PRESIDENTIAL YOUTH EMPLOYMENT INTERVENTION CORE PRINCIPLES

To drive implementation, the PYEI has adopted the following key principles:

- ▶ Place young people at the heart of the intervention; design around and respond to their needs, challenges and lived experiences.
- ▶ Provide accountability for implementation.
- ▶ Leverage existing policies, plans and agreements and focus on addressing gaps in policies.
- ▶ Create space for innovation that accelerates delivery and catalyses further action.
- ▶ Strengthen and build effective partnerships across all spheres of government, with the private sector and social and development partners.
- ▶ Address constraints to job creation both on the supply and demand side by maximising the allocation of resources within and outside of government to jointly identified priorities.

National Youth Policy (NYP 2030) Lens

The National Youth Policy (NYP) is developed for all young people in South Africa, with a focus on redressing the wrongs of the past and addressing the specific challenges and immediate needs of the country's youth. The NYP 2030 seeks to create an environment that enables the young people of South Africa to reach their potential. The policies, mindful of the global economic challenges that affect South Africa, identifies the mechanisms and interventions that will act as catalysts to help clear critical blockages and achieve this positive environment. The desired outcome is empowered young people who can realise their full potential and understand their roles and responsibilities in making a meaningful contribution to the development of a non-racial, equal, democratic, and prosperous South Africa. The NYDA planned performance over the next five years is focused on providing a comprehensive suite of interventions that leads to decent employment, skills development, education, and entrepreneurship for all young people in the age group 14 to 35. These outcome areas focus on fostering a mainstreamed, evidence based, integrated and result oriented youth development approach, through and monitoring and evaluation services, lobby and advocacy to bring on board key stakeholders to implement youth development programmes. The NYDA must implement, and coordinate interventions aligned to the MTSP Priorities and reviewed Policy 2020-2025.

Integrated Youth Development Strategy (2025) Lens

Part of the Mandate of the NYDA as per the Act is to develop the Integrated Youth Development Strategy for South Africa, initiate, design, coordinate, evaluate and monitor all youth programmes across South Africa. The Integrated Youth Development strategy is a strategic framework for coordinating government wide priorities born from the National Youth Policy 2030. Priorities will be identified from gaps, challenges, and opportunities to ensure effective contribution of the National Development Plan 2030. The Integrated Youth Development Strategy should be understood in the context of the policy and legislative frameworks that have been developed in the country and regarding the youth. This has been further informed by the IYDS process of development, one which has been characterized by research, synthesis, engagement, consultation and finally consolidation championed by the Presidency.

The purpose of the IYDS is to enhance the economic participation of young people through targeted programmes initiated by government, business, and civil society, as well as support for programmes that encourage youth innovation, entrepreneurship development and skills development, including income-generating and wealth-creating activities. The IYDS seeks to create a framework within which all youth-related work in South Africa can be co-ordinated, build relationships, foster information-sharing, avoid duplication, and ultimately maximise impact.

National Youth Service Lens

National Youth Service Programme (NYSP) is a government initiative aimed at engaging South African youth in community service activities to strengthen service delivery, build patriotism, promote nation-building, foster social cohesion and to assist the youth to acquire occupational skills necessary to access sustainable livelihood opportunities. The NYDA provides a secretarial function to the National Youth Service, which is the single largest service programme for young people in the country.

In response to coordination, the NYDA is engaging in partnerships with stakeholders from public, private and civil society to create institutional delivery mechanisms that support the effective coordination and implementation of National Youth Service Programmes across all sectors of society. This will position the NYSP as the single largest Youth Service Programme to coordinate delivery of 250 000 active participants in the next few years.

Status of Youth Lens

The Status of Youth Report (SYR) is a legislated document that must be produced by the National Youth Development Agency (NYDA). It is to be tabled before Parliament by the president of the Republic before it is released to the public.

It is mandated by the NYDA Act of 2008, which was promulgated by the South African Parliament as Act number 54 of 2008. This SYR provides an analysis of the youth context and status in South Africa, and it also acts as a background document and basis for future regular assessment of the status of the youth in the country.

2.2 OVERVIEW OF THE PUBLIC ENTITY PERFORMANCE

SERVICE DELIVERY ENVIRONMENT

The NYDA reports to the State President through the Minister of Women, Youth and Persons with Disability in the Presidency. The Agency previously reported to the Department of Planning, Monitoring and Evaluation (DPME) up until 2019 Cabinet announcement adding the youth cluster to the Department of Women. In ensuring that the Executive Authority has significant input in youth development matters, and update on crucial matters, the Board holds regular meetings with the Minister. Parliament portfolio committee on Women, Youth and Persons with Disabilities is responsible for oversight on the work of the Agency and monitors service delivery. The Agency has attended quarterly meetings reporting to the Committee and submitting reports as and when required.

Organizational Environment

The NYDA has rationalized its work and will, through its Annual Performance Plan it has a renewed focus towards youth entrepreneurship and the creation and facilitation of jobs as well as the coordination of the National Youth Services Programme across all sectors of government and society.

The issue of economic transformation is becoming a central theme on the youth agenda requiring further engagements on economic policy. This enables the Agency's environment to improve efficiently in the provision of programmes, products and services that provides real time data for measurable impact.

Youth Sector Environment

The youth sector environment consists of Public, Private and Civil Society. This sector is complex and requires relationships with government and non-government institutions to implement programmes that are run by, for and with young people. This environment requires a multi-sectoral framework within which youth development programmes can be implemented in an integrated manner to maximize outcomes.

The youth sector needs to be responsive to youth challenges irrespective of race, gender, colour, creed, geographical location, or political affiliation. that encompass the following:

- Unemployment and joblessness
- Low labour absorption capacity of the economy
- High-skilled technology labour market
- Available skills vs labour market needs
- Low entrepreneurship levels
- Inadequate access to information
- Inadequate mentorship/hand-holding support and exit strategies
- Inadequate economic growth
- Weak performance of sectors in the industry i.e., manufacturing, mining etc.

Youth Enterprise Development

The NYDA converted to a grant-based model of enterprise support since 2014 and has supported more than 8000 youth owned enterprises in six years and has conducted more than 10 program evaluations to date.

This intervention is aimed at improving competitiveness of registered youth enterprises in their scale-up phase (between one and three years in operation).

- It is bias towards micro enterprises in townships and rural areas.
- This intervention seeks an innovative approach in providing competitive grant funding to youth-led enterprises who have already registered a business and are at the crucial stage of innovation, scaling-up and expansion, as well as potential employment creation (the so-called 'valley of death' due to the notorious difficulty of accessing funding at this stage of business growth).

- It is designed to enhance synergies with other public and private stakeholders' activities (e.g. SEDA, SEFA, TIA) and leverage other resources and services necessary for youth-owned businesses at the scale-up phase, thus improving interactions and multiplication effects throughout the entrepreneurial ecosystem.
- Complementary technical assistance, mentorship and relevant BDS will be provided to the grantees through SEDAs existing network and resources.
- For innovation-driven business, additional support expertise will be drawn from the relevant regional TIA technology stations.

In addition, supplementary corporate grant funding and non-financial / enterprise development support (e.g. data grants, sector-specific compliance, and supplier training) will be sought from the financial services, ICTs, energy, property facilities management and other relevant sectors to support participant access to entry-level supply chain opportunities.

TARGET SETTING

Target setting on the Annual Performance Plan is set on an incremental basis as prescribed by National Treasury Performance Information Handbook. Target setting is also influenced by the budget and capacity that the organization has and as advised by the National Treasury, unnecessary high targets are discouraged especially when there are no resources to back them up.

As per the Medium Term Targets, the NYDA has set targets based on a percentage (%) increment per annum for the next 3 years, as the table below stipulates:

Training Programme	2021/2022	2022/2023	2023/2024	TOTAL	Incremental %
Business development support services	20 000	25 000	28 000	73 000	25%
Life Skills	50 000	75 000	30 000	155 000	33%
Job Preparedness
TOTAL	70 000	100 000	58 000	228 000

In the next 3 years, the NYDA aims to train 228 000 young people.

The target for 2023/2024 on Trainings is set on 50 000 as per the Medium-Term Projections which were set in 2021 when there were budget cuts in Government due to Covid 19. But the number will be increased in the 2023/2024 APP as the NYDA, is now better equipped to provide online trainings and not be dependent on physical trainings only.

GRANT PROGRAMME

The NYDA Grant Programme is designed to provide young entrepreneurs with an opportunity to access both financial and non- financial business development support in order to enable them to establish or grow their businesses. The programme focuses on youth entrepreneurs who are at intentional, promising and early stages of enterprise development.

The projection of Grants to be disbursed in the next three years is as follows:

Programme	2022/2023	2023/2024	2024/2025	TOTAL	Incremental %
Grant	2000	2200	2500	6 700	80%
Vouchers	1000	1200	1500	3 700	40%
TOTAL	3000	3 400	4 000	10 400

In the next three years the NYDA will issue 6700 Grants and 3700 Vouchers to young people.

The target for 2023/2024 for Grants is 2200 which is 50% increment from the previous financial year. This is based on the increased budget on the Grant Programme due to partnerships and Fund Raising measures of the Agency.

NATIONAL YOUTH SERVICE(NYS)

The Revitalised NYS is a government initiative to engage young South Africans in community service activities in order to strengthen service delivery, promote nation building, foster social cohesion and assist young people to gain occupational skills necessary to access sustainable livelihood opportunities. The programme seeks to give further meaning to the constitutional principle of citizen's rights and responsibilities. It offers youth a platform to express their civic responsibilities in a more structured manner. The core pillars of the NYS as contained in the NYS National Coordination Framework:

- Service, leading to patriotism and nation building;
- Leadership Development and Character Building;
- Service Preparation;
- Mobilisation / scale.

The NYS model is implemented through application of any of the following:

- Accredited learning programmes with community service and supported exit streams. Targets the NEET cohort
- Voluntary service by the soon to be professionals at HET institutions. Opportunity to give back to communities and gain practical experience

Gap year programme for post matric youth who did not get admission into HET institutions

Programme	2021/2022	2022/2023	2023/2024	TOTAL	Incremental %
NYS EVP	30 000	11 000	15 000	56 000	10%
TOTAL				56 000

In 2021/2022 the target was 30 000 and 11 000 in the 2022 due to a financial injection of about R400m. But the projection going forward are lower as they are based by the standard budget allocated to NYDA. The target is informed by the Presidential Youth Initiative launched in 2019 by the President where it was estimated that 250 000 young people will be involved in service in the next five (5) years (2020-2025).

3. Updated Situational Analysis

3.1.1 External Environment Analysis

3.1.2 Political, Economic, Social, Technological, Environment, Legal (PESTEL) Analysis

The strategic options mentioned above will need to be implemented within an environment that has challenges affected by external factors. To obtain reasonable comprehension of what these external factors will be in which NYDA operates, a combination of key factors that shape the macro environment were considered. The PESTEL model was used to provide an analysis of the external factors and their impact on the NYDA against the strategic options. These are critical factors considered and factored into the design and development of the NYDA strategy and annual performance plan.

The diagram below articulates the PESTEL analysis

3.1.3 Strength, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats (SWOT) Analysis

The NYDA as an organisation is currently faced with challenges, some of which are beyond its control. These challenges have the potential of restricting its effectiveness, achieving optimal performance in the execution of its mandate and reaching its targeted goals. The SWOT analysis was used to provide an analysis on internal capabilities against strategic options mentioned above. It provides the NYDA with an understanding of its strengths, weaknesses, threats and opportunities that it can leverage on in achieving these strategic options. The weaknesses and threats present the NYDA with a chance to turn these into strategic opportunities. Equally opportunities and weaknesses can be strengthened to impact on NYDA's future performance.

4.1 NYDA Organisational Structure

The organizational structure was revised and approved in the financial year 2021 by the Executive Management of the NYDA to ensure that it delivers on its key strategic goals and objectives, as well as to ensure stability to achieve alignment between the new strategic direction and the organizational structure. The National Youth Development Agency (NYDA) embarked on the realignment of its structure in 2021 to review and redesign its delivery model to ensure that it has adequate capacity to deliver on its strategic priorities and to take its mandate forward. This project formed the basis of diagnosing where and how the organization needed to focus, in reorganizing the organization, processes and people. The current organizational structure is responsive to mainstreaming and delivering the full mandate as per the NYDA Act.

4.2 Problem Tree Analysis

The problem tree aims to address challenges faced by young people by implementing the NYDA mandate, of a coordinating body on youth development matters. The targets have been set through the MTSF indicators relate to entrepreneurship, job placement and National Youth Service. The related interventions aim to respond to various challenges that hinder young people from participating in the mainstream economy.

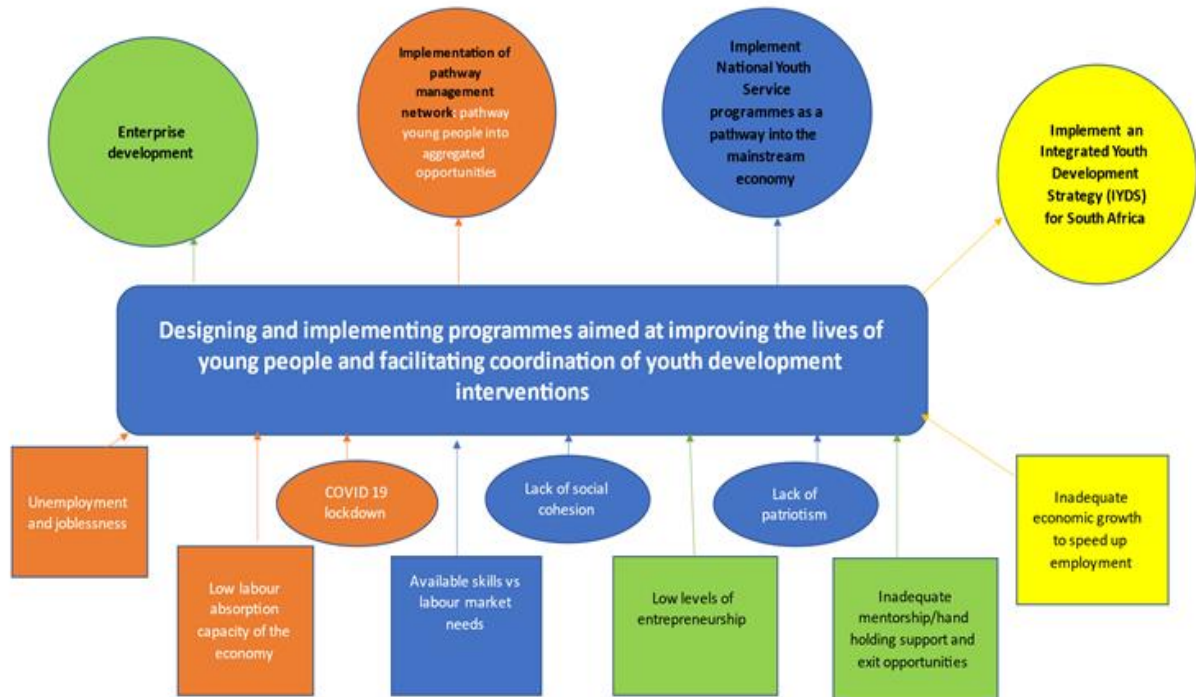

The problems that NYDA must resolve are informed by both external and internal factors. The NYDA must therefore work towards interventions that can address the following challenges:

- High unemployment rate.
- Low absorption of young people in the job market.
- Available skills vs labour market needs.
- Low entrepreneurship levels.

- Inadequate mentorship/hand holding support and exit strategy.
- Inadequate economic growth

The Problem tree’s analysis helps stakeholders to establish a realist overview and awareness of the challenges by identifying causes and effects of the problem they are trying to solve. The Problem Tree as illustrated below provides the hierarchy of these cause and effects of problems and challenges that the NYDA needs to address.

Below is an illustration of the Problem and Solution Tree for NYDA

The diagram above indicates that the NYDA as a coordinating body can influence mainstreaming of youth development into the economy to improve their livelihoods. This can be achieved through the following possible solutions:

- Enterprise development which is aimed to improve competitiveness of registered enterprises.
- Implementation of pathway management network which seeks to pathway young people into aggregated opportunities by:
  - Creating more jobs and opportunities for youth in the formal, informal and social economy
  - Driving system change that address barriers and supports inclusive hiring and reduced unemployment.
  - Link youth to opportunities and to support them inclusively and for free.
- Implement National Youth service Programmes as a pathway into the mainstream economy.
- Implement Integrated Youth Development Strategy for South Africa.

4.3. Results Chain

The log frame approach is used in monitoring and evaluation which must be applied at all levels of the NYDA business processes. This will help to address the inter-related measures of input, process, output, outcome and impact. The results chain of the NYDA as illustrated in the picture below shows the logic framework that defines the process, which is a five-year view of the impact statement. This implies that in the next five years the NYDA must implement programmes that mainstream young people in the economy and improve their livelihoods. On an annual basis, the

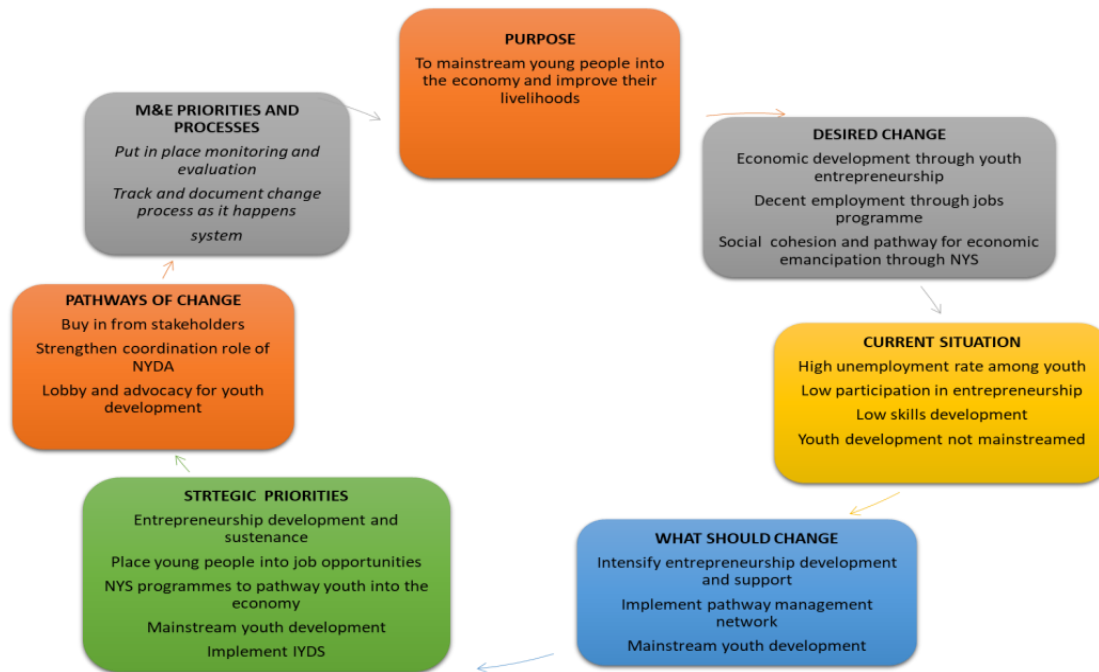

NYDA will achieve outputs that will build up to outcomes in three years' time, as reflected below:

Below is the Proposed Results Chain for the NYDA

4.4 Theory of Change

The theory of change defines what the NYDA must do to bring change that will impact livelihoods of young people and mainstream youth development. The process of engaging how the change must look like requires NYDA to re-define its purpose of existence, the desired or envisaged change against the current situation of young people, focusing on what needs to be improved to define strategic priorities which will inform the pathways of change and how these should be monitored and evaluated after implementation. To move from the current situation to meet NYDA's mandate and outcomes, the following theory of change is proposed.

The theory of change illustrated above provides a possible way forward given the emerging developments and changes in the youth sector. The process helps us to navigate unpredictable and complex process when implementing the emerging changes. Applying the Theory of Change will lead NYDA to a solution-based thinking in overcoming new developments.

4.5 Spheres of influence on the desired change

The spheres of influence determine what it is that the NYDA can control to achieve the desired change. The NYDA will operate within different spheres of influence which includes:

- Sphere of Control: Where the NYDA has full control of what it desires to change, it can influence joint planning through stakeholder engagements. It must establish outcome indicators within the sphere of control.
- Sphere of Influence: Is out of NYDA's control but can influence the desired changes through standardization of youth work in the sector, promote better collaboration, develop norms, standards and a segmented youth cohort approach to increase access of products and services
- Sphere of Interest: Is out of the NYDA's control but can influence development of content for legislation, create awareness, lobby and advocate for youth development.

The picture depicted below provides a description of the spheres and its relationship to the results chain.

4.6 Monitoring and Evaluation

The Monitoring and Evaluation framework provides an over-arching guide on all monitoring and evaluation process as guided by the NYDA mandate. It aims to knit together areas that are key in creating an enabling environment for effective and efficient monitoring and evaluation of NYDA and its partners' efforts, in relation to:

- i) Planning: NYDA strategy development, Programmes and Services planning and formulation, target setting and defining expected outputs, outcomes and impact.
- ii) Implementation: Business processes used in the delivery of services, these include project management, continuous quality improvements, efficient and effective approaches, adherence to guidelines and procedures, risk assessments and mitigation and supportive supervision.
- iii) Reporting: Systematic reporting on inputs, outputs, outcomes and impact and providing continuous feedback for improvements and lessons learnt on products and services.
- iv) Knowledge Management: The strategies and processes of identifying, capturing, and leveraging knowledge to enhance competitiveness. Knowledge Management comprises a range of practices used by the NYDA to identify, create, represent, and distribute knowledge for reuse, awareness and learning. Knowledge Management at NYDA seeks to tie organisational objectives and achieved specific outcomes to shared intelligence, improved performance, competitive advantage, or higher levels of innovation within the NYDA's programmes. The framework allows the NYDA to align all its interventions to outcomes and impact as well as to track organisational performance against these. In this way, the M&E framework provides a multilevel, organisational mechanism to answer a bottom-line question: Is the organisation making a difference in the following areas?
  - i. Achieving improved livelihoods for young people in South Africa.
  - ii. Promoting self-reliance for targeted youth.

- iii. Enhancing economic and social growth in targeted communities.

4.7 Balance Score Card

The Balanced Scorecard (BSC) is a strategic planning and management system that organizations use to:

- Communicate what they are trying to accomplish.
- Align the day-to-day work that everyone is doing with strategy.
- Prioritize projects, products, and services.
- Measure and monitor progress towards the achievement of the strategic targets.

The system connects the dots between big picture strategy elements such as mission, vision, core values, strategic focus areas and the more operational elements such as objectives, measures or outcome indicators and output indicators which track strategic performance, targets which are the desired level of performance and initiatives. The signed off and approved Strategic Plan and Annual Performance Plan of the NYDA forms the basis of the MoU between the National Youth Development Agency and its Executive Authority, the Department of Women, Youth and Persons with Disabilities.

Below is a graphic that illustrates the NYDA Balance Score Card perspectives

The above model reflects the approach that the NYDA will adopt in institutionalising Performance Management System.

It will reflect the following perspectives:

- Finance: Cost savings and efficiencies.
- Customer: Customer service, satisfaction and brand awareness.
- Internal Business process: Process improvements and technology utilization
- Learning and Growth: Human capital, skills, talent and knowledge

4.8 Activity Based Costing

The Annual Performance Plan will reflect funded service-delivery targets or projections per Strategic Output. The budget indicates the resource envelope for the 5-year ahead and sets indicative future budgets over the MTEF period. The budget covers the current financial year and the following two years. The accounting authority of the agency may revise the budget whenever necessary.

The Strategic budget is developed within the framework of the Strategic Plan and must inform its Annual Performance Plan. In-year implementation and monitoring of the budget is conducted through the monthly financial reports, while end-year reporting is made through annual financial statements, which are included in the annual report.

5. Budget Overview of 2023/24 and MTEF estimates

5.1 Expenditure analysis

The National Youth Development Agency planned performance over the MTEF period is focused on providing a comprehensive suite of interventions that leads to decent employment, skills development, education, and entrepreneurship for all young people in the age group 14 to 35. These outcome areas focus on fostering a mainstreamed, evidence based, integrated, and result oriented youth development approach, through and monitoring and evaluation services, lobby and advocacy to bring on board key stakeholders to implement youth development programmes.

The NYDA will implement, and coordinate interventions aligned to the MTSF Priorities and reviewed Policy 2030. This will enable NYDA to achieve collaboration by promoting co-ordination of youth development matters in South Africa.

Programme Resource Considerations

Administration

The administration programme houses the NYDA Financial Services, Human Resources, Information Communication and Technology units, Internal Audit and Risk, the CEO support staff. The cost of the administration programme has been projected at R135 million in 2023/24, which represent 18 percent of the total budgeted expenditure. The costs will decrease by 8.6 percent on average over the MTEF period. Over the MTEF period, the focus area is to achieve efficient and effective utilisation of resources, provision of functions, governance, human capital, produce annual report on partnerships established with Disability organisations to promote youth development and establishing stakeholder relations with our partners which is key for the entity to achieve its mandate. The strategy incorporates formal training on the job training and skills development of employees to ensure highly skilled and efficient employees. These interventions are targeted at youth which aligns to the achievement of priorities of women and people with disabilities. While the entity does not intend to establish any new access points, the cost of annual maintenance and investment in technology and innovation has been considered primarily to ensure that business continue operate efficiently while embracing digitalisation.

5.2 Explanation of planned performance over the medium-term period

The planned performance over the medium-term period for Administration Programme will focus on implementing internal and operational programmes to address the MTSF outcome related to an efficient and effective Agency characterized by good corporate governance and ethical leadership. The Agency will develop and implement customer service plan, communications strategy, Percentage preferential procurement spend on enterprises that are Youth-owned (30% youth owned, 40% women owned and 5% persons with disability) that will promote youth development delivery. Develop and implement organisational culture. Review and implement ICT strategy. This is also in line with the Agency to ensure that officials are well capacitated and use available technology platforms by developing the ICT Plan which will support business to operate efficiently. The main goal of the outcomes in this focus area is to achieve efficient and effective utilisation of resources, provision of functions, governance, human capital, establishing stakeholder relations with our partners which is key for the NYDA to achieve its mandate. The strategy incorporates formal training on the job training and skills development of employees to ensure highly skilled and efficient employees. These interventions are targeted at youth which aligns to the achievement of priorities of women and people with disabilities.

7.1.5. Sub-Programme Resource Considerations

Spending in this programme is expected to increase from R264million in 2022/23 to R266 million in 2023/24 based on the annual budget, with the agency targeting 28 000 enterprises in 2023/24. The programme costs will see an average increase of 23.27 percent over the MTEF period. Through the economic participation programme, the Agency continues to provide support services to ensure that youth gain direct access to financial and nonfinancial support, markets access and this relevant skill needed to ensure they gain the most effective entrepreneurial applications within and across different areas of economic value chains. Support to be provided include accounting, website development, business plan writing and marketing to enterprises run by youth. NYDA financial support is provided through micro grants to township and rural enterprises. Demand far exceeds supply for the programme; however, it is one of the only government programs where township and rural youth can access financial support. The NYDA will rely on donor funding from Provincial Government, the Department of Small Business Development and the Presidential Youth Employment Intervention to scale particularly the grant program.

7.2.5. Explanation of Planned Performance over the Medium-Term Period

The planned performance over the medium-term period for Programme Design, Development and Delivery enhance the participation of young people in the economy through targeted and integrated programmes. Programmes implemented by the NYDA aim to facilitate and provide employment opportunities for young people, enhance the participation of young people in the economy, geared at increasing job creation, entrepreneurship participation and to provide business support to young people. The planned performance is also aimed at facilitating and providing skills development opportunities to young people and to enhance their socioeconomic well-being, with the objective of facilitating education opportunities and community participation activism. Due to limited socio-economic opportunities and viable opportunities for young people.

There is limited support for young people to participate in the economy. Thus, financial and non-financial support is provided for enterprises in order address those challenges facing young people. Young people apparently in rural areas have limited access to information on youth development so by increasing the number of activities on information dissemination around issues of youth development we aim to close those gaps. Number of young people are unable to access the job market due to limited skills and this intervention provides training to young people to enable them to participate in the economy and enter the job market. These interventions are targeted at youth which aligns to the achievement of priorities of women and people with disabilities.

7.3.4. Sub-Programme Resource Considerations

The National youth service has been identified as a critical programme in addressing unemployment, skills shortages, community service and issues of social cohesion and the NYDA has partnered with the Presidency in co-ordinating the Presidential Youth Service programme, this programme was sitting at R430 million in 2021/22 and will move to R213 million in 2022/23 and R261 million in 2023/24 and (DECREASE) by 94 percent over the MTEF period due to adjustment on the jobs programme received from the Presidency going forward. The NYDA will focus on coordination and pilot scale implementation with the receipt of donor funding. It will also require budgetary support from the Presidential Youth Employment Intervention.

7.3.5. Explanation of planned performance over the medium-term period

The planned performance over the medium-term period for National Youth Service is aimed at engaging young people in service to their communities to build the spirit of patriotism, solidarity, social cohesion and unity in diversity. Young people have limited opportunities to participate in nation building activities, so the National Youth Service Programme engage in awareness campaigns to build awareness, register projects that meet the National Youth Service compliance criteria and coordinate partners who are implementing National Youth Service projects. The uptake and coordination of opportunities for young people requires that National Youth Service build sustainable relationships, and this will help in mobilising resources to implement National Youth Service. Higher Education presents a huge opportunity for young people to use their skills to build this country. These interventions are targeted at youth which aligns to the achievement of priorities of women and people with disabilities.
